Welcome to your September eNewsletter.

Another busy month. 2nd of September was the society's AGM where there was a couple of changes voted on.

1) Change to membership year from September to January. To do this there had to be a vote on rule 6 in the constitution. This proposal was carried.
2) Increase in membership subscriptions. A proposal from a member for the single membership to be £10.00 which would make joint £15 for joint was carried.
Point of interest.

As the year will now start from January, anyone paying their membership before December 31st will effectively be getting 15 month subscription for the current payment of £7.00 as the £10.00 will only become payable in January 2015.

Current paid up members will not pay the £10.00 until January 2016.

Note:

To make sure that you get your December magazine please make sure that you pay your membership by the 30th of November.

October's Speaker, Paul Halksworth Sutton Scarsdale Hall

Our monthly meeting will be held as usual at St Hughs Catholic Church hall on Tuesday the 7th of October, when we have a return visit from Paul Halksworth who has delighted us with his talks in the past. Paul a member of the Arkwright Society has a wealth of historical local knowledge and so expect this talk to be enriched with the tales of yesteryear. This month's topic is Sutton Scarsdale Hall. Sutton Scarsdale Hall, a grandiose Georgian mansion built in 1724 -1729. Sitting high on the hill to the right when approaching junction 29 of the M1 It's majestic presence can't be missed. The land mark, an imposing shell of a building. But! There is still much to discover within..... Personally, I want to know more about it's ghost!

Celebrating 25 years
1989 - 2014

13 September 2014

The event was held at Whittington Moor Methodist Church. Chesterfield Well what a busy few months we have had.

Work has been hard and at times nerve racking as the event drew closer, worrying that all would go well. At times like this I am glad I am no longer in full time work as this has become just that. Never the less it has been a rewarding experience as the 25th celebration event reached fruition on the 13th of September.

calling. Keith Fanshawe our chairman was on hand and did a splendid job as host to them, introducing them to people as they worked their way around the hall before partaking in a cream tea. Alexis gave a small speech before they left and thanked us for his invitation and said that they had thoroughly enjoyed their visit. The Mayor has a couple of really well worth charities and Keith Fanshawe on behalf CADFHS presented the mayor with a donation for them before he left.

We don't have an exact number of visitors as many missed our signing in book, but we all agree that we must have had around 200 visitors. They came from near and far. Edinburgh, Wales , Burton on Trent, Nottingham Sheffield Rotherham & Norfolk, to name just a few . Also a very special visitor was Mr Ray Norton and his wife. Ray was the society's very first Chairman and number 1 on the member list.

Featured sat in the picture opposite.

The Mayor, Mr Alexis Diouf and his wife the Mayoress also joined us and stayed for 2 hours meeting and speaking with exhibitors and visitors only leaving then as further duty was

The venue and location was excellent but think we will need to look for something larger if we are to build on this years event.

The member exhibitors were creative and enthusiastic with their displays which were really well done, covering not just family history but social and local history too. WW1 was the theme of several as you can imagine in this centenary year.

Three of our local history society joined us in our celebration, they were, Chesterfield, North Wingfield and St Helen's. Their stands proved to be very popular and were very busy throughout the day.

We were also supported by several commercial stands where take away from their visit. The commercial stands added variety & a history fair flavour to the day.

Our team on the free research tables were kept on their toes as they proved to be very popular. They were manned by three of our committee members. Terry Cocking, Neil Wilson & Alan Godhard. Neil was also on hand for free searching on the FWR [Forces War.Record], website. A nice little bonus for our visitors.

Two raffles ran on the day, one with generic items and the other for more of our FHS visitors, including one year's free membership to CADFHS. The winner also became the owner of a prestigious membership number of '1000'. This was won by Leslie Philips.

Refreshments were on sale though out the day and manned by our A team. Cream Teas, hot and cold drinks with snack kept members and visitors sustained throughout the day.

By the end we were all thoroughly exhausted, but quickly talking about next year....so watch this space.

Did you know? We Exchange Magazines with other societies

Have you ever wanted to join other societies?
Because your ancestors come from other areas?
That is all of us!

Might want to, but can be expensive!
And that is why some years ago Family History societies came up with a part solution and did something about it.
The FHS's collaborated and came up with the idea to exchange their magazines for the benefits of their members.

CADFHS became part of this scheme and so four times a year our magazine is sent off to partner societies who are also part of this scheme. In return we hold their quarterly magazines in our library for you, our members.

We have an agreement with 30 plus societies

TIP: If you are visiting the meeting please order your copy in advance if you would like to borrow it.

The following list are whom we currently exchange:

Aberdeen and North East Scotland FHS	Lancashire Family History +Heraldry Society
Barnsley F H S	Lincolnshire Family History Society
Birmingham and Midland Society for Genealogy+Heraldry	Manchester and Lancashire F H S
Bristol and Avon F S H	Norfolk Ancestor
Buckinghamshire F H S	Northampton Family History Society
Cheshire F H S	Nottinghamshire Family History Society
City Of York + District Family History Society	Quaker Family History Society under re negotiation

EXCHANGE MAGAZINES - THE FUTURE

As we already provide our magazine electronically, it is hoped that the exchange magazines will become part of our growing on line resources and so be available from the dedicated 'Member area' on our website as well as the library..

http://www.cadfhs.org.uk/members_area.htm

Search boxes are at the bottom of the page and you will need the current password.

So watch this space as we get more and more on to our website.

Finally
Can you lend a hand?

Does anyone know where the Dundee Rambler Cottages, Shuttlewood would have been in 1911? Just found out a close ancestor of mine lived there. Contact Jayne jadire@gmail.com

Does anyone have access to Chesterfield St Mary PR's for around 1807? I'm looking for the marriage of a George Maxfield, son of William and Esther. Believe he probably married that year in the parish church but don't have access to records from the continent.
