News Letter May 2016

Issue No 2

It is with some regret that we have to send out this very short News Letter again instead of the magazine that you are used to receiving every quarter, and my thanks go to Hazel Deighton for helping me to prepare this edition.

Brenda Lefley who has done such a good job over the last year in spite of ill health has reluctantly decided that she has to resign. In spite of advertising in the February Magazine, at the time of going to press no one has come forward to take on the Post of Editor. We are very sorry to lose Brenda but wish her well for the future

We still hope that someone will come forward soon as there is now a backlog of articles awaiting publication and I am sure you will all miss the interesting news and articles which are normally in the magazine

Some members have asked if they can receive their magazine electronically. We hope to be able to do this when we have a new Editor.

It will be done through the members' area of the website, so if you are interested in receiving your magazine in this format, do log on to the Members' Area of the website and we will keep you informed of developments.

Just remember you will need your membership number to enable you to join the members' area of the website

Sue Patman
Chairman LFHS

WANTED

EDITOR

Could you be the Next Editor?

We are very sorry to lose Brenda, but I am sure there is someone out there with the necessary Desktop Publishing skills who could take over the Post of Editor

Please contact me if you feel you can help

chairman@lincolnshirefhs.org.uk

THE SOCIETY ALSO NEEDS A NEW CHAIRMAN and VICE CHAIRMAN

Due to the nature of our Constitution, our current Chairman and Vice Chairman have to step down at the AGM, having completed a maximum of 6 years in these roles.

If we are to continue as a pro-active Society we need to appoint a new Chair and Vice Chair at our AGM on Saturday June 4th 2016

Are you willing to take on either role? The Society desperately needs your help.

Further details can be obtained from the current post holders.

Sue Patman (chairman@lincolnshirefhs.org.uk) or

Peter Reichelt (vicechairman@lincolnshirefhs.org.uk)

An application form for any of the above positions or to become a member of the Executive Committee can be found at the end of the AGM papers.

GRIMSBY BRANCH NEWS

The Great Grimsby Branch has been invited to take part in 2 exhibitions this year, 2016.

St Peter's Church, Cleethorpes celebrates its 150th anniversary this year, and will be hosting a Flower Festival within the Church over the weekend of 3rd, 4th & 5th June.

We are hoping to set up a Family History Exhibition on Monday 6th June to follow on from this, and will be on display all week. Maybe you were baptised there, or your grandparents married there; maybe your ancestors had a hand in building the Church! If anyone has any family members connected with either Cleethorpes or the Church, we would love to hear from you.

Secondly, this year will see the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of the Somme, The Great War.

There are all sorts of events in the pipeline for this, with the main events over the weekend of 1st, 2nd 3rd July. An event for Friday 1st is in the planning stages, & will take place outdoors in Peoples Park, Welholme Rd, Grimsby, and will hopefully include a Drumhead Service amongst other things.

There will be an exhibition in The Business & Digital Hub, Freeman St Market, Grimsby DN32 7DS running from Saturday 2nd July. We will be setting up a Family History display, along with exhibitors from the British Legion, Grimsby Library, and others. If anyone has Grimsby or Cleethorpes ancestors who were involved in the Battle of the Somme, we would love to hear from you. They don't have to be of a military background, it could involve medics, clergy, or even those who were left at home.

Please contact myself at nessa.dumbleton@gmail.com

Thanks,

Vanessa Dumbleton

These magazines will be placed with the Family History Society magazines in the rack to the front of the library.

BOOKS:

EXTRACTS FROM THE MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF GUARDIANS OF:

CAISTER UNION WORKHOUSE PART 7, 1890-1901 (LFHS)

SPALDING UNION WORKHOUSE PART 4, 1884-1894 (LFHS)

LOUTH UNION WORKHOUSE PART 3, 1854-1861 (LFHS)

STAMFORD UNION WORKHOUSE PART 9, 1862-1865 (LFHS)

GEORGIAN SPILSBY by Richard Gurnham:

A detailed description of this attractive Lincolnshire market town as it grew through the C19th. Utilising a wide variety of original sources, it covers governance, buildings, markets, population, poverty and the Poor Law, religion and education. This is essential reading for those who want to know more about the town.

THE CONNECTION: THE STORY OF WILLOUGHBY AND IT'S MOST FAMOUS SON – CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH ETC.

A collaborative, locally produced booklet with a brief history of the village, but concentrating on the life of John Smith – 1st Governor of Virginia, who was born in the village in 1580.

THE TENNYSON FAMILY & THEIR VILLAGES by John Large

Another locally produced booklet giving a brief history on the famous poet's family and their life in Somersby, but also featuring Bag Enderby and Harrington.

We have also been given a series of descriptive church leaflets with one incorporating a brief village history. The villages are:

Hackthorn – St Michael's

Langton by Spilsby – St Peter & St Paul

Monksthorpe Baptist Chapel

Snelland – All Saints + village

New Bolingbroke – St Peter's Church

Sibsey – St Margaret's

GRIMSBY TRAWLERS – THE FINAL YEARS OF THE SIDE TRAWLER by Paul King & Steve Pulfrey

For all you members with Grimsby fishermen ancestors, this may well be of interest to you. The book contains a brief history of the development of steam trawlers in Grimsby, from 1881 to 1985 when the sale of the final eleven trawlers involved in deep-sea fishing at the port was announced.

A fleet by fleet section follows with many photos of their fishing vessels, bringing back to mind the heyday of the Grimsby fishing fleets.

VIEWS OF OLD RETFORD compiled for the Retford & District Historical & Archaeology Society

A collection of old photographs of this old market town just over the county border in Nottinghamshire most dating from the early years of the C20th.

FENLAND WATERWAYS – A PICTORIAL ANTHOLOGY by Alan and Michael Roulstone

A delightful collection of illustrations and text covering a ‘personal survey’ of some of the many pleasurable and interesting features along the Fenland rivers – the Great Ouse, Cam, Witham (Boston to Lincoln), Welland and Nene.

LINCOLN’S CITY CENTRE NORTH OF THE WITHAM published by The Survey of Lincoln and edited by Andrew Walker

This is the twelfth book in the growing range of books chronicling Lincoln’s history area by area. The new book looks at an area that takes in much of the area enclosed by the original Roman city walls, extended down to the river. The historic core of the city is detailed here from The Stonebow to Steep Hill and West Parade to Broadgate and Lindum Road.

Those of you that have read the earlier books in the series will know what to expect – knowledgeable and highly readable accounts of the city’s past.

GENEALOGICAL NOTES ON THE ELSEYS OF LOW TOYNTON HENINGBY AND BUCKNALL by W M Myddleton and published in 1915. Donated by Peter Woods, a member from Norwich,

The author writes “the following notes relating to the Elsey family have been collected at various times and unless they are now put into print are likely to be lost.” How true that is of our research – where will it go after we have gone!

The book shows how the Elsey name is long established in the area quoted and contains trees, details of wills and parish register extracts.

DOMESDAY BOOK – YORKSHIRE (2 VOLUMES)

These are from the usual red-covered Phillimore publications with the original 11th Century text on one side and a modern “translation” on the other side. All of the county of Yorkshire is covered in the two volumes. There are various indexes and notes at the back of Volume 2.

TELL THEM OF US: A DVD AND ACCOMPANYING PROGRAMME:

A professional/volunteer production; which tells the story of the two Crowder sons of Thimbleby, near Horncastle (the Crowder’s Nursery family), at the time of the First World War. Both boys went to fight, the younger was killed in 1917, the elder was captured and held as a POW until after the Armistice.

The DVD tells the story of how the impact of the war in general and their very personal worries impacted on the family. Running at just over an hour, it is a highly evocative and moving story and well recommended.

TERESA WILLIAMS' COLUMN

The following newspaper extracts for the years 1717 to 1818, give details of absconding Apprentices, Husbands and Wives. We shall never know for certain exactly why these ancestors ran away from their job or home, but it was a decision which was fraught with serious consequences if apprehended as they each were committing a criminal offence. Occasionally, a second chance would be offered if they returned within a specified period, but this concession might not have been completely sincere. (The spelling, language and punctuation in the extracts are original).

From: THE STAMFORD MERCURY, Friday 31st October 1717

“William GOADE, a Boy about 17 Years of Age, with Grey Cloaths and White Mettle Buttons and dark lank Hair, Ran Away about the middle of August last from his Master Richard BLADES of Stamford, Lincolnshire, Weaver. Whoever secures the said Boy, and gives Notice to his Master aforesaid, shall have Five Shillings Reward. Or whoever harbours him, be it at their Peril.”

From: THE STAMFORD MERCURY, Friday 13th February 1737-38

“Led Away from Spilsby (by one Francis EALAND, who is a middle-siz'd Man, near forty Years of Age, who when he went away had on a green Waist-coat set with yellow mettle Buttons, double breasted, also a dark coloured brown Coat with double-breasted Buttons, wearing a Wig and has lost a Tooth before), One Bay Mare, comes Five Years old, has few grey Hairs on her Forehead, and part of the far Heel behind is White, about 14 Hands and a half high; also he carry'd away at the same time one Silver Tankard marked 'F.E.'

Whoever secures the said Mare and Tankard, so they may be had again to Francis WARE, of Partney near Spilsby, shall receive Half a Guinea Reward and reasonable Charges of him.

(Signed) FRANCIS WARE.”

From: THE STAMFORD MERCURY, Friday 2nd March 1737-38

“WHEREAS, Sarah, the wife of Richard LEESON of Denton in the county of Lincolnshire, has divers times contracted Debts and sold the Goods out of the House to the very great Detriment and Damage of her said Husband: This is to give Notice, that if after the Publication of this Advert, she shall contract any Debts, the same will not be paid: and if any Body shall receive from her, or by her Appointment, any Goods or Effects of her Husband's, they shall be esteemed as Felons, and thus prosecuted according to the Law.

(Signed) RICHARD LEESON.”

From: HOWGRAVE'S STAMFORD MERCURY, Friday 3rd July 1740
