The Birkhill Infants School opened at Chestnut Avenue, Eckington , in January 1953. Prior to that date pupils had attended at the Eckington Board School (later Eckington Council School) on School Street, Eckington.[1]

It is now an Infant and Nursery School for children between the ages of 3 and 7.

Records held at Derbyshire Record Office D2745 (1875-2012) , which includes stray items from the girls department of the old school.
